Alumni success stories

Nothing makes us prouder than being able to talk about the success of our alumni. Corllins University alumni have a head start over other university graduates, with many of them attaining high-level positions in different multinational companies. Some of them also continue their education to earn additional degrees. Below are a few success stories of our graduates.

Rachel K. Elegance Beauty Salon

Before moving to NY, Rachel was trying to get a suitable job but since her portfolio lacked proper credentials, she faced disappointment everywhere. She got enrolled at Corllins University, took online classes and earned her diploma in beauty specialization. Within months of graduating from Corllins University, she was hired as an assistant beautician at a local beauty salon in New York. Today she has opened her own beauty salon and believes that receiving a diploma from Corllins University was the first step towards this rewarding career.

Michael Cooper Sales & Marketing Manager

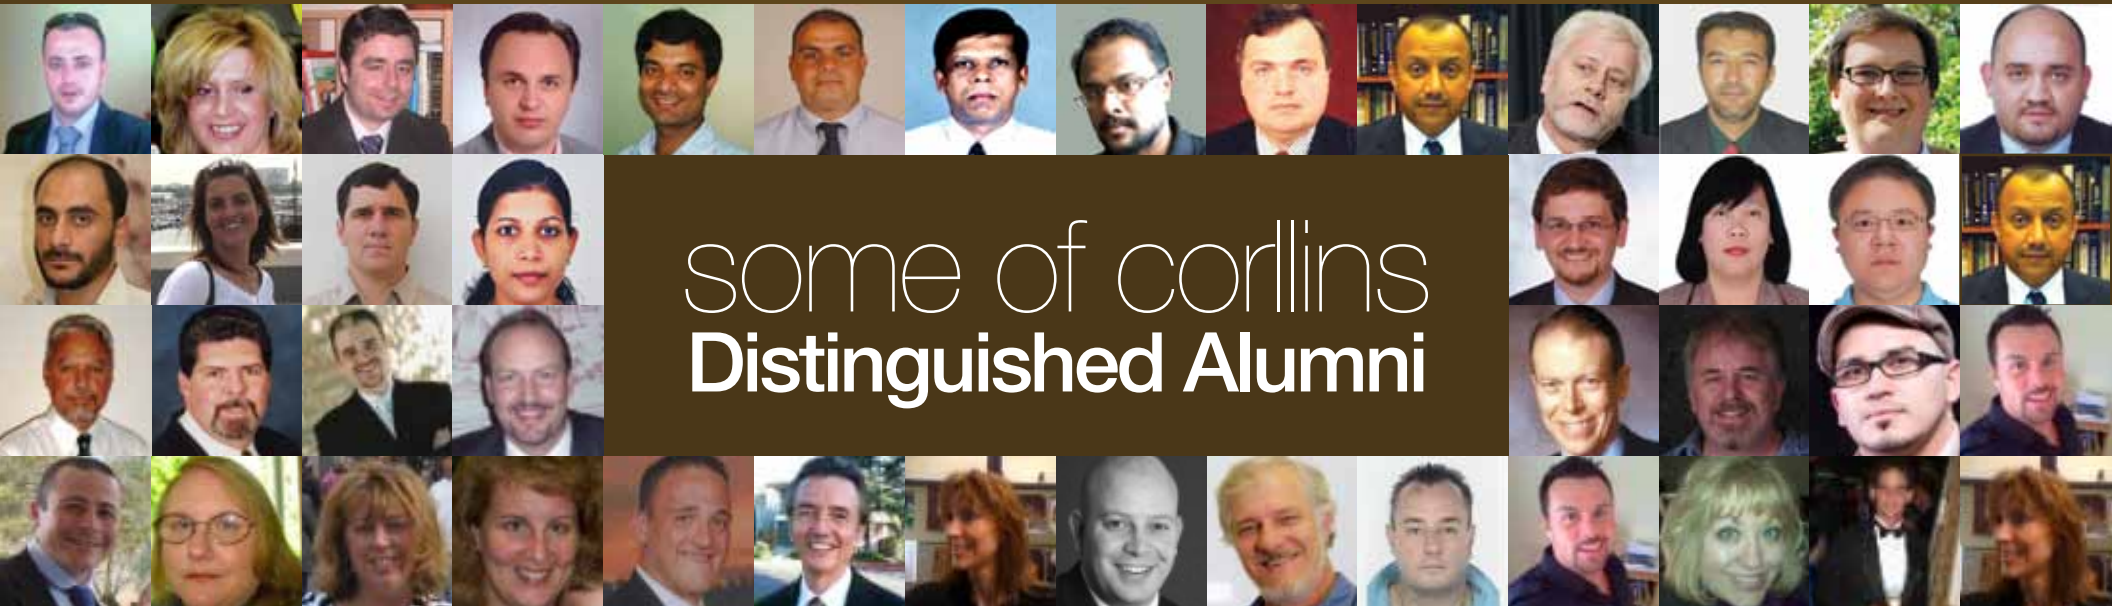

Eight months back, Cooper had vast experience of sales and marketing but no degree due to which he has to work at supporting positions in his company. Cooper had almost lost all hopes in career advancement when he found out that he can study alongside his job at Corllins University. Cooper is delightful of the fact that a degree from Corllins has not only opened doors to endless opportunities, but also gave him a lot of self-confidence and satisfaction. Today, Cooper is working as a Sales & Marketing Manager at a renowned insurance company.
